DOLCETTO D'ALBA

100% Dolcetto

Production area: Diano d'Alba
Terrain: Sono tutti vigneti di media collina con ottima esposizione, terreni ricchi di marne calcaree di buona permeabilità. Esposizione prevalente: ovest, sud-ovest. Superficie in produzione di proprietà dell'azienda: 3 ettari
Harvest: manual
Vinification: Maceration with the skins in temperature-controlled steel tanks for 4 days, then racking and completion of alcoholic fermentation in stainless steel (about 20 days) where, keeping the temperature controlled, malolactic fermentation also takes place
Refinement: stainless steel for several months, until the following summer, when it is bottled without filtration or clarification
Color: rosso rubino intenso con profonde note violacee
Fragrance: broad, floral, sharp, with captivating vinosity where notes of violet and bonbon prevail
Flavor: Fresh, soft, balanced, and only slightly tannic taste, where young plant notes blend elegantly with just the right amount of alcohol
Alcoholic Grade: 13% vol

In the little hamlet of Ciotto, in La Morra, the Veglio family has always been dedicated to the land since the early 1900s. Angelo Veglio, in the '60, bought the first vineyard in the locality of Gattera. In 1979, again in the Annunziata hamlet, the family took over a part of the Cascina Nuova along with 5 hectares including the "Cru" Arborina and Rocche dell'Annunziata: from that moment the story of the Veglio as wine growers began. In 1986, Mauro, son of Angelo, in his young age took over the reins of the company and together with his wife Daniela acquired the vineyards in Monforte d'Alba from his father-in-law in 1996 continuing to renew the vineyards. Active protagonist of the "barolo boys" movement - who between the '80 and '90 changed the way to see the Barolo – Mauro, in 2017, decides to focus on young people by joining his company with that of his nephew Alessandro, born in 1982. It is the only case in Langa where what had been divided over time between the founder's grandchildren and children is reunited! Simple and natural viticulture, respectful of the environment, fertilization with manure, grassing of the vineyard for fine and elegant wines, perfect ambassadors of their territory, made by two men who always question themselves to improve the "fruits" of their land.
