MOREY SAINT-DENIS TRÈS
GIRARD

100% Pinot Noir

Production area: Morey St. Denis

Terrain: Viti impiantate negli anni '70. Acquisto di uva da ½ ettaro dal 2009, produzione di 7 o 8 botti (228 l) all'anno

Harvest: manual

Vinification: the grapes are destemmed and fermentation takes place in open-top concrete tanks that allow manual pigéage. Only natural yeasts are used. Extended cold maceration period of 5 days before fermentation to allow for greater extraction. Fermentation is quite long and generally lasts 15 to 20 days

Refinement: the use of new oak for élevage is carefully restrained; up to 20% for village crus. The wines spend 18 months in barrels before bottling, all without clarification or filtration. All work in the winery that requires wine handling is done by gravity; wines are never pumped

Color: deep ruby red

Fragrance: powerful aromas of black cherries and hot stones

Flavor: possess fine tannins and reveal their fruity character and aromas already in their youth. Often mistaken for Chambolle Musigny

Alcoholic Grade: 13% vol

Founded in 1880, in Morey-St-Denis, in the heart of Burgundy, the Domaine Hubert Lignier is one of the great interpreters of this small village of Côte de Nuits with wines that fully respect the tradition of Burgundy. In 1991 Romain joined his father Hubert in the company, without wanting to change the style of the domaine in any way except to refine some small details. Unfortunately, his untimely death in 2004 left the domaine in a difficult situation for some time, with Hubert who had to take over the management supported by his oldest son Laurent who soon took control of the winery. The vineyards are located in the villages of Morey-St-Denis, Chambolle-Musigny and Gevrey-Chambertin and in addition to the grapes from these vineyards are vinified grapes coming from the property of the widow of Romain, which is why some wines are "negoçe". An impressive talent in winemaking with a style without excesses have made Hubert Lignier one of the greatest interpreters of Burgundy: his wines perfectly represent the elegance of pinot noir.
